

What in Carnation? (a Flower Power puzzle)

The answer to each clue in this puzzle is six letters long and should be entered in a curve starting in the correspondingly numbered space on the outside and curving in towards the center of the flower. Each numbered space is the start of two answers, one curving clockwise and the other counterclockwise.

CLOCKWISE

1. "Scan me" item
2. Identity theft, for one
3. In a portentous way
4. "Whac-a-Mole" implement
5. Aggregated
6. Linked together, as two SQL tables
7. Surname for Yakko, Wakko, and Dot
8. The Simpsons character whose catchphrase is a loud belch
9. Steel bars used as a support framework
10. Stand for

11. Paul whose number 34 is retired by the Boston Celtics
12. Word that I use when writing etymology clues, and at no other time
13. Weaved together
14. It's mine!

COUNTERCLOCKWISE

1. Fruit that looks like a pear but tastes way worse
2. Country in which the aforementioned fruit is made into a liqueur, which does taste good
3. "Everyone must marry a pelican", for one

4. Address heard at Renaissance Faires, I assume
5. Scream, for the scary movie genre, or Scary Movie, for Scream
6. Dolly Parton song covered by her god-daughter Miley Cyrus
7. Thick, soft, and fuzzy
8. R.A. ____ (fictional Irish Cream mogul)
9. January birthstone
10. Patched, as a sock
11. Authored
12. August in Adelaideback
13. Possible explanation
14. Black-and-orange flier