

Oopsy-Daisy (a Flower Power puzzle)

The answer to each clue in this puzzle is six letters long and should be entered in a curve starting in the correspondingly numbered space on the outside and curving in towards the center of the flower. Each numbered space is the start of two answers, one curving clockwise and the other counterclockwise.

CLOCKWISE

1. Mete out in a limited way
2. Freeman who narrated March of the Penguins
3. Triton, son of Poseidon, for one
4. Container for milk or eggs
5. Imelda known for her extensive shoe collection
6. "Man Returns To Work After Vacation With Fresh, Reenergized ___ For Job" (The Onion headline)
7. Gives hair a bit of a bushier look
8. Took a breather

9. Babs Bunny's best friend, in Tiny Toon Adventures
10. Superficial part of an organ (notably, the brain)
11. Witch's concoction
12. Evidence of manual labor
13. Mishandle momentarily, like a ground ball
14. On the level

COUNTERCLOCKWISE

1. Video game that lets you make other video games
2. Hairstyle whose name looks vaguely Korean

3. America's parallels to Europe's "coaching inns"
4. Color similar to fuchsia
5. Robbie of Barbie
6. Company that makes JBL headphones
7. Pattern seen on kilts
8. The plot of Rogue One, e.g.
9. Be relevant to
10. Uses four-letter words
11. Added an entry to a blog
12. "Nasty Nestor" of the Yankees
13. Took a turn at the plate
14. "I know someone who's even ___ than Jesus" —Homer Simpson, referring to Flanders